Green Housekeeping of NYC Earns International Honor

NORTHBROOK, Ill., USA—December 30, 2019— ISSA, the worldwide cleaning association, is pleased to honor Green Housekeeping of New York, N.Y., with the 2019 ARCSI Professional Image Award for Best Logo Design.

David Kistner, partner, of Green Housekeeping, formally accepted the award at ISSA Show North America 2019, which was held Nov. 18-21 in Las Vegas, Nev. The annual ARCSI Professional Image Awards honor residential cleaning companies that excel at presenting themselves in ways that capture the high level of professionalism for which ISSA member companies are known. The award for Best Logo Design recognizes excellence in design, use of color, ease of overall use, and effective branding. Also considered are graphics, uniqueness, communication value, and theme.

Founded in 2009, Green Housekeeping is a residential cleaning service founded by New Yorkers who discovered how hard it was to find a professional apartment cleaner in NYC. With 15 full- and part-time employees, the company is committed to providing amazing cleaning and superior customer service.

“The best residential cleaning companies offer trust, experience, expertise, and high-quality service,” says 2019 ISSA Residential Show Committee Chair Marlo Kanipe of Deserved Comfort in Cayce, S.C. “The ARCSI Professional Image Awards honor member companies that do an outstanding job of expressing these professional standards through their graphic identities.”
